Chapter 1 by Andrew Hartmann

None of this was meant to happen, but it did. We should have one. The year is 2060, and the Nazis control America.

Chapter 2 by eelir J

Well we thought we won the war, but it appears we have only won a battle. The Nazis were living for almost a century under the ground, planning and plotting for the next battle that would win them the war while we were going on with our daily life thinking ISIS or East Empire is the World's enemy. They had thousand of spies, half of them industrial spies that kept the underground Nazis informed with all the technological advances the above-ground world had to offer while they were working on their "toys" in peace.

The world was just about to get its first longer period of peace when they decided to strike. Saying it was brutal is an understatement. At first, no one knew what was happening as all the electronic devices stopped working...
